STARTING MACHINE A SUCCESS.

The rain of yesterday morning made the track at Forsyth heavy and sloppy for the fifth day's racing, and in consequence the talent were all at sea in picking winners, only one favorite, Lillian E, turning the trick out of the six events.

During the afternoon the skies cleared. The attendance held up as well as the rain. In the first and third events at six furlongs, Clem Creveling's starting machine was used, and it proved a great success. It is merely a strong rubber band stretched across the track from two posts, which flies back when released by a spring, so rapidly as not to interfere with the horses. For the present, however, the advance flag will be used, in order that the starters may be recalled, if the machine does not work. These machines will be put in at all starting points at once. Another machine was tried in the 2-year old race, but only one arm would go up, and Dick Dwyer had to send them off in the old fashioned way.

In the first race the talent overlooked the fact that Winslow was a Blue Eyes, and he went to the post at 20 to 1. He showed the same liking for the mud as old Blue Banner, whom he somewhat resembles, and though he was said to be short of work won in a fierce drive by a nose from Montell. In the two-year-old race Belle of Niles showed she could run as well in the mud as on dry ground, and beat the favorite Ethel Farrell cleverly.

Anna Mayes, who was favorite in the third event, ran a shocking bad race, finishing last, while Remedy and Dominico did not do much better. Gomor came from behind in the stretch and won a hard race from Ashland.

The outrageously named Blacking Brush, one of "Brown Dick's" castoffs, startled every one by capturing the fourth event at 5½ furlongs, beating Otho cleverly. In the seven furlongs Lillian E. at last gave some consolation to the backers and beat Frankie D. handily. Lulu T. ran a poor race.

For some reason or another Sixty was made favorite in the six and one-half furlongs event, though Doctor G. opened up as choice. Helen H. Gardener won with something to spare, Onalaska getting the place from Caulfield by a short head.

Bonnie Jean, b. f. 3, by Deceiver—Pomona, of the Kenwood stables, died of lung fever at the Lakeside track Monday morning. She was a full sister to Esther Cleveland.

MEMPHIS FABLISTS AT WORK.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., April 20.—The Luehrmann Handicap to-day was nothing more than an exercise gallop for Rondo. Frontier, who was second, is a hard luck horse. He ran a good, game race, and should have been closer up, but everytime Martin tried to go through with him he would get pocketed. Dunne had a big bet on his colt. It was reported that Pat Dunne and Jockey Martin had had a falling out on account of the latter's ride on Agent, and the morning papers here printed bad and untrue stories that they would sever connections.

Mr. Dunne sent for the RACING FORM correspondent and strongly denied the rumor. It was also stated that Pat accused Martin of pulling Overella Saturday. This also was denied by Mr. Dunne and other stories printed to the contrary are all imaginary. To-day's racing was tame, weather perfect, crowd large and track fast.

JOCKEY FOSTER'S DEATH.

CINCINNATI O., April 20.—There was an ugly bit of racing incident in the third race to-day. Rounding the first turn, Frank Lee, with Reneker up, ran into Tin Horn and knocked him down. J. Foster, who rode Tin Horn, fell into the group of horses and was killed by their hoofs. The boy was promising and had ridden in but a few races.

Chas Cogle gave but $85 for the real good filly Miss Ames which ran such a good race at Forsyth Thursday behind Devoir, in Kentucky last fall.

Joe Murphy, who has, with Capt. Jim Rees, done well in California the past winter is on his way East. He will be in Chicago to-day and then goes to St. Louis to officiate at the Fair Grounds meeting.

If DAILY RACING FORM isn't worth its price to-day, no paper ever was. There are four full form charts and sets of entries spread upon its pages, besides the news of a racing day.

Answers to Queries.

A. A. City. Lady Violet was bred and was always owned by August Belmont. McCafferty never owned her.

Owner, City. The managers of the Terre Haute and Indianapolis racing meetings are perfectly reliable and will carry out their promises to the letter. We cannot recommend Sturgis or Niles much.
